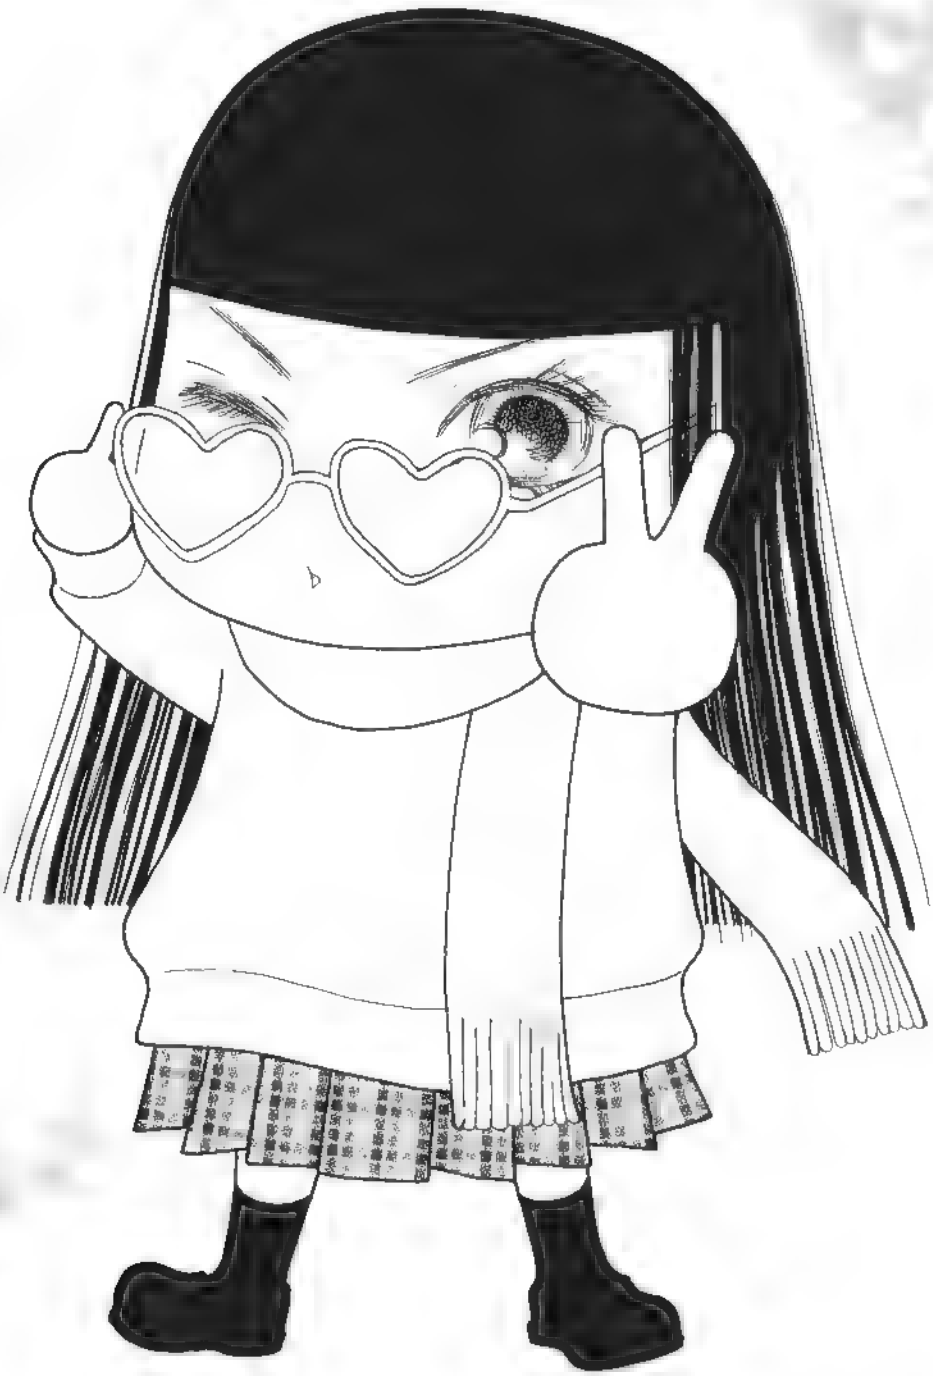
Yamato Nadeshiko Shichi Henge
Beautiful in every way.
Oda Takenaga has the gentlest feminist heart.
Morii Ranmaru loves women and is rich in life experiences gained through hardships.
Toyama Yukinojou is bright, honest, and sensitive.
Nakahara Sunako

In a lodging managed by an Oba-san, four handsome boys live together. Loneliness is their number one enemy, but they love their dark moods very much.

"If you turn Sunako-chan into a lady, you'll get to live rent free for three years," Obaa-san said that. The four boys grew very enthusiastic. However, dazzling creatures are Sunako-chan's natural enemies. So they are in BIG trouble!! On top of that, thanks to a boy who called Sunako-chan "ugly," she is terrified to go outside successfully. Can her previously broken heart be mended? Will her Lady ways ever see the light?

Chapter 63.

Onobori-san to Go



TL: Onobori-san is a term that Japanese people use in reference to country people who come to the city. Roughly translated in English it'd be akin to "hillbilly" or "bumpkin."

It's about fifteen minutes from here by train.
Hey ...
What does Sunako-chan want to do in Harajuku?
Isn't this her first time riding a train?
But isn't it strange for Sunako-chan to go out?

TL:Harajuku (原宿 "meadow lodging") is the common name for the area around Harajuku Station on the Yamanote Line in the Shibuya ward of Tokyo, Japan. The area is known internationally for its youth style and fashion. Harajuku street style is promoted in Japanese and international publications such as 'Fruits'

I'LL GO AND SEE THE REAL THING!
"... I hate 'ugly' girls ..."
But even if ...

Those were the words spoken on that day ...

... I thought to experiment.
That is why ...

SFX: exhausted
You guys !!
I'm already tired ...
I'm not used to this much sunlight ...

SFX: exhale
WE REALLY HATE IT !!
... do you hate them?
Crowds and sun ...

In spite of my own spontaneous and dazzling nature ...
Are you listening?
The weather is too nice to stay lazing around the house.
It's your way, though.
Weak? What's weak?!
But ...
You don't say things like that!
Even though this is Sunako-chan's long-awaited outing ...
C'mon!
THE SUN'S DOUBLE PUNCH!
Aren't things too expensive here?
... but why choose Harajuku?
...rather than Takeshita?
TL: Takeshita is the area where they live

My middle school classmates said that I should go with them ...
... but I didn't want to.
Sunako-chan, why don't you go?
I don't wanna.
It was to be an outside rehabilitation.
Don't you think so?
Let's go together this time
It's going to be a lot of fun
I see ...
Well, in that case, we should help you.
It'll be like getting revenge on your classmates, huh?
Revenge ... That has a nice ring to it ...
Then leave the tour of Harajuku to me!
I always get lost though ...

It's a Harajuku uniform.
I think he graduated from there.
(me too)
He attended Takeshita middle school.
WE'RE THE HARAJUKU ONOBORI-SAN!!
Everyone says that it's such a fun place and that it has some promising highlights ...
Even though I hate crowded places, this actually seems like it might be fun ...

SFX: shove
Please let me take photos of you !!! ♡♡♡

Let's go in the gyuudon-ya restaurant!
Eh! It's Kimura Takuya!!
SFX: gasp

TL: a gyuudon-ya restaurant is a specialty restaurant that only serves gyuudon (beef bowls)

TL: Kimura Takuya is Japanese heartthrob from the Jpop group, SMAP. Takenaga looks like him

SFX: stamping crowd

I lost my hat.
It was my favorite, too ...
Whaa ... There are a lot of weird ones.
Sunako-chan, let me see you try this one on!
Yeah. They've got lots of them in here !!
Cheap !!
Is this going to be okay for now?
Ranmaru, Ranmaru ...
Do you want this one? It's three hundred yen.

SFX sparkle
That's right, and it's cheap, too.
While you're at it, you can hide your face in that ...
cause you're annoying.
How do I look?
Looks good!

TL: A purikura is an instant photo booth where you can get pigures, stickers and the like

I don't want to ...!!
All right, let's buy the 'clothes demo'!
Che! All right.
I really hate having my picture taken.
I didn't really come to Harajuku to do anything ...
But ... I really don't want to.
I'll smack you
Don't you want to stop being an Onobori-san?!
LET'S BUY THIS TEE-SHIRT !!
原宿
LOOK !!
TL: The tee shirt appears to say Harajuku, but is actually a play on words. The meaning implies both Harajuku as well as 'being wild in Harajuku.
I don't want one, though, but it's amazing!! Amazing!!
It's okay to put it on!!

Come now.
We came to visit Harajuku.
Hey, don't they make a great couple?
She's really going to wear it?

That's not it!!
I'm sorry! I made a mistake
There are a lot of second-hand stores over there.
Let's go look for great bargains!
They have tons of cute and cheap merchandise.
And HERE!
Harajuku's specialty, Mr. Namashashin's store!!!
Look here! They have bigger cellphone straps for the same 1000 yen!
Over here, we can buy *bamboo shoots and Imperial house clothes!
Even if we just look it's fun!
There are also as many inexpensive shoes as you could want.
Weren't the hats cheap, as well?

TL: Namashashin is an unprocessed photo studio

TL: Yuka's comparing the price of cellphone straps to the ones back home.

*More than 20 years ago, people went to Hoko ten. (In those days, there were car-free pedestrian malls.)

Note. A section of road of Tokyo's trendy Harajuku district adjacent to the National Sports Stadium — formerly famed as a car-free "hoko-ten" (pedestrian paradise) — is gradually becoming popularized as a dumping ground for derelict vehicles, the Sankei Shimbun (May 12) reported.

... Meaning?
Even though Ranmaru would intensify his coolness ...
I'm not a cool idol.
But I don't want an outfit now.
Eh?
We are mistaken for idols
Ah, there are good men in this world in spite of what they wear
I don't know ...
Is this Nabukada expensive?
Cool! This is my first time here.

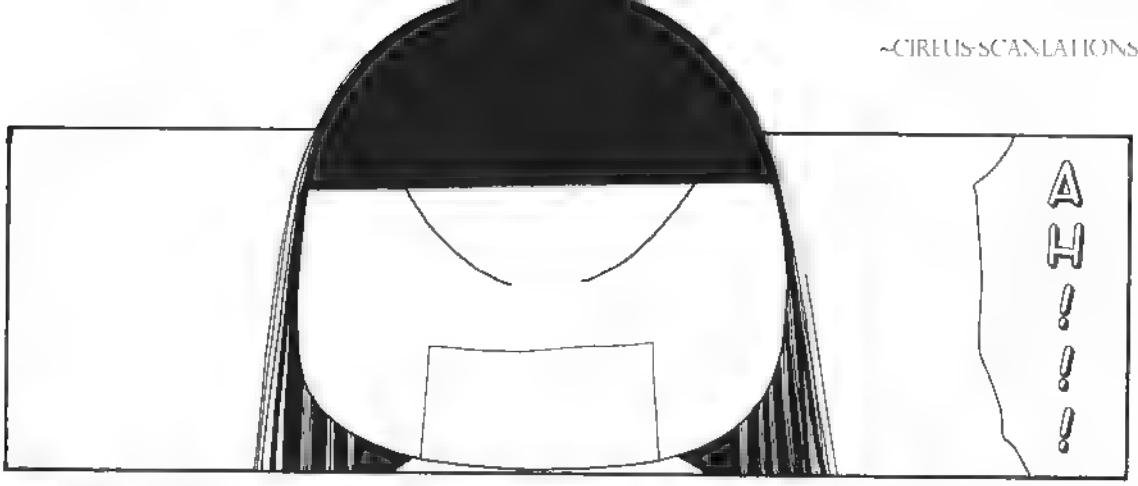
SFX: sobbing
Takano Kyouhei, 15 years old ...

TL: The Royal is a luxury hotel.

TL: 350 Yen is roughly $3.50 USD

TL: She is referring to making Kyouhei her favorite 'host' so that he'll always be available for her whenever she visits the club where he's working ... in his dream.

~CIRCUS-SCANLATIONS~



Today was my first day at the part-time job that I finally found so I haven't been paid.
I can't buy ice cream, either; because I'm broke.
Just listen to me, okay?
I don't do this every day, so leave me alone!
What did you say?!
That's my ice cream!

The True Story

You know, this time it was full of special guests.
Before the deadline, Kodansha had a New Year party.
Lots of shoujo mangaka attended the party
ALTHOUGH I COULDN'T GO, YOU KNOW?

Even though the Hotel was 5 minutes away by taxi

And thanks though despite everyone's help, I couldn't sleep at all before the deadline
IT WAS A LOT OF FUN! ♡ ♡ ♡
Aimoto Mizuho ♡ ♡ ♡
Yoshii+ Yuu ♡ Youse+ Machiko
Thanks for ♡ Everything! ♡

By the way, "Chopan" is a Yankee term for head-butting. I understand it was first heard from the Yankee people of past middle 20's and first middle 40's.

TL: When Mr. Hayakawa says that the term chopan is a Yankee term, what she means is that it's a biker term - to be more precise, a Korean biker term. Since motorcycles and the classic "biker" are percieved by the Japanese to have originated in the United States, pretty much everything related to them is considered "Yankee" even if it isn't actually an American idea.

~CIRCUS-SCANLATIONS~

If Kyouhei were more like Ranmaru ...
... wouldn't that help Sunako-chan become a lady, too?
Yeah! If she's treated like a lady, then she might turn into one, right?
And so the rent would be free. ♡

*TL: As noted a few chapters ago, Nanpa is a sort of courtship ritual in Japan. While nanpa does take place both online and via telephone clubs, street nanpa or 'suto' nan is the most famous form of nanpa.

TL: Fukuzawa Yukichi, Japanese author, motivational speaker, and political theorist who lived in the Meiji Era, is pictured on the 10,000 Yen banknote.

TL: according to dictionary.com a pheromone is a chemical secreted by an animal that influences the behavior or development of others of the same species, often functioning as an attractant of the opposite sex

KYOUHEI!!!
Something so simple ...

TL: according to dictionary.com: an ideograph is a character or symbol representing an idea or a thing without expressing the pronunciation of a particular word or words for it; as in the traffic sign commonly used for "no parking" or "parking prohibited."

The truth is ...
... you like Kyouhei, don't you?
She really doesn't understand that her face has almost become an ideograph.

SFX: ringing telephone
This is Takano Kyouhei, ready to receive any painful punishment ...
Oba-chan ...
EH?

You ...
You can actually be a kind-hearted woman ...
G-got it. I'll tell her.
You want the two of you to climb up the Cho-moranma?
She looks like she could endure even an Arctic wind ...
You are actually pleased? With that?
But ...
You know ...
She's got my entire little fortune there ...
She's already returned to her old self ...
